WW2 and Northern Ireland Burials at Christ Church Swindon

1 THOMAS BRADY CULLINAN WW2

Gunner Service Number: 1543457 90 Bty., 35 Lt. A.A. Regt. Royal Artillery Died 11 April 1940 33 years old SWINDON (CHRIST CHURCH) BURIAL GROUND

Northern. Grave 477. Thomas was the son of Frederick George and Emily Frances Cullinan (nee Brady-Brown). His father (1860-1925) was a major in the Boer War and later became Sheriff for the town of Ennis, County Clare, Eire serving for 35 years. Tommy was born in Ennis, May 15, 1906. He started as an amateur jockey in 1923 aged 18. In 1927 he became the champion amateur. That year he came to England with Frank Barbour, former owner of the famous horse Easter Hero and he turned professional in January 1928. In April 1928 Tommy won the Irish Grand National on Don Sancho. He also came second in the Grand National at Aintree, Liverpool on a horse called Billy Barton, a horse trained in Wroughton, Wiltshire. It was a very eventful race with 41 horses falling or not finishing – even Tommy fell at fence 30 but remounted and completed the race. Only 2 horses finished that day.

It appears Tommy's mother, by this time a widow, followed her son to Wiltshire as they are listed as living here in Swindon and in our burial records Tommy's mother is recorded as buried in the same grave (3/2/1961) In 1930 Tommy Cullinan achieved a unique treble. He won the Cheltenham Gold Cup on Easter Hero, the Champion Hurdle on Brown Tony and the Grand National on Shaun Goilin. The only jockey to ever do this. He is one of only six jockeys to have achieved the Cheltenham Gold Cup and the Grand National in the same year. Shaun Goilin was a chance ride in the 1930 Grand National as he had been due to ride Easter Hero but the horse fell lame. In Irish Shaun Goilin means 'John the Fairy'. After his win Tommy said –'I think there must be something of a fairy about him judging by the way he carried me to victory at Liverpool. He gave me the most marvellous ride'. In 1936 he married Noreen Stella Barlow whose father owned a Kettering Confectionary firm.

In WW2 Tommy served as a private in an anti-aircraft unit based at an RAF station in Oxfordshire. His life came to a sad end. In spring 1940 on 11 April Thomas Brady Cullinan, returning from a night out on the town, was 'shot dead by a nervous sentry at the camp gate'. That was the story put about, in fact Thomas shot himself being depressed. The newspaper article reporting the inquest is available on the internet and it states that neither the evidence or the verdict was disclosed. Mr A Lett, South Oxfordshire coroner said 'It is not in the National interest that I should reveal it.

You can even watch Pathe Newsreel of the 1930 Grand National on the Internet!
